Learn how to write a well-structured essay using a specific model designed to:

-  Analyse & discuss how themes are represented in text;
-  Identify the techniques used by authors to construct these themes; and,
-  Discover how readers are positioned to think and feel about the identified themes

This workshop will focus on the process of Text Analysis and three different types of text:

Feature Film,

Novel and

Feature Article

*This workshop is suitable for students who are intending to study or are currently studying Essential English, ATAR English or ATAR English Literature.

Presented by: Jenny Baker, a well-known Speech Pathologist who works exclusively with children and young adults who experience reading, writing and spelling difficulties.
